

The dream that got the church...

On the Move!

Full of testimonies of acts of God, and heart-stopping moments while faith was being tested, Sizzling Faith is the previously untold story of people like you who dared to trust in God.

You perhaps know On the Move from the free barbecue mission held in your area. But did you know that it has now become a world-wide movement reaching as far as Moscow and Manila, Bogota and Beijing? Have you heard about the extraordinary steps of faith that started it? Or that just two days before travelling to meet church leaders in 30 countries, OTM director Martin Graham was diagnosed with cancer - and then told that, even if he lived, he wouldn't be able to speak in public again?

You have been part of this amazing story - now you can read the whole of it - and share it with your friends who could be deeply encouraged in their own walk with God.

"This book leaves you breathless! It will make you ask what you are doing with the one life God has given you... I commend most warmly Sizzling Faith."

John Sentamu, Archbishop of York

Other Commendations...

'A truly compelling story of God at work in the midst of vulnerability and hamburgers!'

Joel Edwards, General Director, Evangelical Alliance

'... a remarkable story, full of interventions from God, miracles of guidance, provision and indeed rescue in the context of cliff-edge situations. ... The risks were worth taking because something of importance was being born. Now it has grown, literally worldwide. Read on, and be encouraged.'

Michael Green, author and pastor

'We have all read stirring missionary autobiographies, and most leave us open-mouthed and in awe. Martin Graham's account of his and Gina's remarkable achievements and, sometimes almost non-existent faith, somehow seems to be more within the grasp of ordinary mortals like me. His story will, I'm sure, inspire many would-be evangelists to follow their dreams.'

John Noble, Pioneer Network and Chairman of Charismata,
The National Charismatic Leaders Conference
